Through Iris' Eyes

Erv Margulis, VP of Brotherhood, Trustee on the Temple Board, Kitchen Manager (along with Gloria Rodetsky) and Office Volunteer...whew, busy guy at Temple Shalom....submitted some of his thoughts to me. Erv is one of those guys who you just have to respect and love.

Here is what Erv shared with me:

“The reason we have such a beautiful building and all its amenities is because of congregants’ involvement and generous donations. There are many people who give large donations and want to remain anonymous for various reasons, but we want to thank them.

We recently asked congregants to donate to the Torah fund because our three Torahs are badly in need of repairs. Halfway through our campaign, we received a check for the remaining amount needed, and now we can fully pay for the repairs. What a wonderful gesture.”

This is such a meaningful gift to Temple Shalom. Cleaning, repairing and koshering all three Torahs was one of my goals when I became President. It’s gratifying to see this project come to fruition. Please plan to join your temple friends on April 26 to meet the Torah Scribe. You will have the opportunity to place your hand on the Scribe’s hand and put a letter on our Torah. See you there!

Spring is here which means Passover to Jews throughout the world. Rabbi Barry H. Block says that on Passover, we are linked to Jews everywhere, as we all sit down to Seder tables on the same night. We recall that we have been slaves in many times and places since Egypt. We stand in awe of the fortitude of fellow Jews who have worked to set our people free from persecution throughout the ages. We acknowledge that we are the beneficiaries sacrifices made by our brothers and sisters in the Land of Israel. We rejoice in the freedom of our people.

Rabbi Block reminds us: “Remember the stranger, for you were strangers in the Land of Egypt.” During Passover, we should be mindful of those who continue to be enslaved by poverty and hunger, by illness or by prejudice, by homelessness and by hopelessness. May you be inspired to another act of Tzedakah, to help the needy of our community. The Haggadah tells us that we are not truly free until all people live in liberty and peace.

Temple Shalom members enjoyed a lovely annual Seder on April 10, led by our Service Leader, Sheldon Skurow. The Hagaddah we shared with our members and their guests invoked the message of Rabbi Block. The organizers and readers did a great job. The many volunteers who contributed their time to plan and organize the Seder need to be thanked and appreciated. A special recognition to Ann Jasper and Rosalind Gantz.

The Sisterhood Women's Seder organized by Lynn Sindoris and Sherry Elias with an army of helpers and readers, was inspiring. The woman-centered Hagaddah empowered each of us. It was a wonderful experience, including dancing and singing orchestrated by Michelle Uss.

A unique Seder took place at the United Church of Christ (UCC), our neighbors on Route 101. The Seder included the Interdenominational Committee. A wonderful experience that I've enjoyed for the past two years. Thank you, Sheldon & Eveleen, for encouraging involvement.

May you and yours enjoy next year in Jerusalem, or wherever you gather to share a Seder.

See you in Shul,
Iris

Sisterhood

In March Sisterhood held two of our largest Fundraising and Ritual events – Fashion Show and The Women's Seder.

The Fashion Show was held at Harbor Hills on March 14, where a capacity crowd of 250 ladies were in attendance. We dined on a sumptuous buffet and tried our luck with a raffle, silent and Chinese auctions. We were entertained by our very own Sisterhood women (and a few men) modeling clothes from Stein Mart. Thanks go out to Susan Feinberg, Ina Lidsky and their large committee of hard-working women who made this fundraiser such a success.

Our ninth annual Women's Seder was held at Temple on Monday, March 27. Led by Sherry Elias and her committee, 141 women celebrated this special event by joining in the recitations, singing, dancing and partaking in a traditional Passover meal. The accompanying photographs show a small example of the exuberance and joy we felt during this special celebration.

Another March event was our Rosh Chodesh celebration, which took place at The Temple on Sunday, March 19, 2017. During the celebration we said our traditional prayers in honor of the new month and learned about the significance of the month. We also experience a Drumming Circle, a fun stress release with Recreation Leader, Carol Spears, who taught us about the history of Drumming and brought with her several different types of drumming instruments for us to use. Since it took place shortly after Purim, the name Haman was heard several times during the afternoon.

Our final Rosh Chodesh celebration before the summer break will be May 21. A special thanks goes out to Marsh Riefs, Chair, and her committee: Davida Brachfeld, Estelle Brauer, Jean Gaull, Sandee Horowitz, Jeanne Richter, Gloria Rodetsky, Lana Rosenberg and Marilyn Shapiro.

Sisterhood's last event in April was our April 19th trip to the Holocaust and Dali Museum. This trip was enjoyed by both men and women.

Shalom.

Ben Krieger, the 12-year-old grandson of Julie and Jeff Stein, is playing a starring role in the 1st National Tour Group of "Finding Neverland," a Broadway hit which tells the story of how J.M. Barrie came to write "Peter Pan." Ben is Peter, and he has been receiving rave reviews: "Ben is one of the most amazing and gifted young performers on stage today. There is no doubt his future will be brilliant," was one of the many outstanding reviews. The proud grandmother, Julie, will have the honor and excitement of being a chaperone to the young star when the play is on tour in Canada and elsewhere. To double the joy, Ben is studying to be Bar Mitzvah this summer. He is practicing via telecommunications while acting in "Finding Neverland." You can see and hear Ben singing on YouTube. He is truly amazing! We wish him a fantastic future and many Tony Awards.

Brett Bonda, the son of Dory Ratner, has been the Managing Director of the Richmond Ballet, The State Ballet of Virginia, since 2011. Brett joined the Ballet in 1985 as professional dancer and then founded the innovative education outreach program Minds In Motion (MIM) in 1994. MIM is the cornerstone of the Ballet's outreach efforts, with a goal of creating a more compassionate community through dance. In 2009, working with the Virginia Israel Advisory Board, he developed a MIM program in Israel, which works to use the power of dance to break down barriers between diverse communities. Students from Israeli and Arab schools work together to create a performance that is seen by audiences in both Israeli and Arab communities.

In honor of this extraordinary program, on March 27th, Minds In Motion received recognition from the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) for its work in uniting Jewish-Israeli and Arab-Israeli communities.

Ed-Jew-Cation: Power Mom

In the old days, our Yiddisher Mama could, and would, kvell (boast) about: my son, the doctor; my son, the lawyer; my son the rabbi. In the new days, our Jewish Mama can, and does, kvell about: My daughter, the doctor; my daughter, the lawyer; my daughter, the rabbi! Yes, same Mama, same children, but now those original “Tiger Moms” are looking to their daughters not only for grandchildren, but for Supreme Court Justices! Her son may be the prince, but her daughter is the ruling queen. Every year Forbes lists the 100 most powerful women in the world. For the past several years, over 10% of those women are Jewish, and they hold three of the top 10 rankings. Who are these marvelous, multi-tasking mothers?

#3 on that extraordinary list: JANET YELLEN, 71, wife of George Akerlof, mother of Robert Akerlof, Chairman of the U.S. Federal Reserve System since 2014. In charge of the management of American money policy, she is the highest ranking American on the Forbes list, and the first woman head of the Federal Reserve System. She holds a Ph.D in economics and is considered to be one of the 50 most influential economists and policymakers in the world.

#7 on Forbes list: SHERYL SANDBERG, 47, widow of the late David Goldberg, mother of two children, author, Chief Operating Officer of Facebook. Sheryl is also the founder of Leanin.org, which advocates that women lean in to positions of business leadership. Sheryl served as Chief of Staff for U.S. Sec. of the Treasury Sumner, and was the first woman to be selected for the Board of Directors at Facebook. Time Magazine named her as one of the most influential people in the world.

#8 on the exclusive list: SUSAN WOJCICKI, 48, married to Dennis Troper, mother of five children, CEO of YouTube. The founders of Google, Page and Brin (her ex brother-in-law), set up their original office in the Wojcicki garage in Menlo Park, and Susan was elected first marketing manager of that organization. In 2014 she became the CEO of Youtube, after handling its acquisition of that and Doublecheck. Ms. Wojcicki has been called the most important person in advertising and the most powerful woman on the internet. Family oriented, she is often quoted about finding the balance between family and career.

#20 is another technology related female: SAFRA CATZ, 55, married to Gal Tirosh, mother of two sons, CEO of Oracle. She is said to be the world's highest paid female executive, earning $53.2 million in 2015. Ms. Catz is an Israeli-born American and retains much interest in her native land, calling Israel “The Start-Up Nation.” She was brought on board of Oracle in 1999 and has served as CFO and co-CEO. Her name has appeared on Forbes list since 2009.

23 and 24 are our superior Supreme Court justices, RUTH BADER GINSBURG and ELANA KAGAN. These two outstanding women are historically important both individually and jointly. Mrs. Ginsberg was the 2nd woman appointed to the U.S. Supreme Court and the first Jewish justice since Abe Fortas in 1969. A widow -- she was married to Martin Ginsburg and has two children. Ms. Kagan, only 56 years of age, was the first female solicitor general of the U.S., and has the distinction of being the fourth female justice. There is no record of her being married or having children, but she is female, and Jewish, and that counts!

#27; RUTH PORAT, 60, married to Anthony Paduano, mother of three children CFO of Alphabet, Inc. of which Google is a subsidiary. Before holding this lofty position, she was VP and CFO of Morgan Stanley for five years. Ms. Porat is a breast cancer survivor, which makes her extra-special.

All of those mentioned power moms were listed above Queen Elizabeth of England, who rated a #29 on Forbes list. Briefly, the following were among the 12 Jewish women named: #32; IRENE ROSENFELD, #60, CEO of Mondelez International, former CEO of Frito-Lay and Kraft Foods, married to Richard Illgen and mother of two daughters. Her philosophy is that she has a Jewish obligation to practice, “Tikkun Olam,” repairing the world. #47; BONNIE HAMMER, 66, Chairperson of NBC Universal Cable. She has been honored by many organizations for her initiatives and campaigns confronting racism and bigotry through the use of the media. She is married to Dale Heussner and the mother of two children. #53; DANA FREEDMAN WALDEN, 53, Co-Chair and Co-CEO Fox Television Group, married and the mother of two children. She was the person who negotiated the billion dollar deal to air “The Simpsons” on FXX, the most profitable show in syndication. Coming in at #71; DIANE VON FURSTENBURG, (a true Jewish Princess, until her divorce from the prince), 70, wife of Barry Diller and mother of two (one of whom is a princess) CEO of her fashion company, DVF. She is most famous for her signature wrap-around dress and has diversified into other lines of fashion. Her mother, a Holocaust survivor, taught her, “Fear is not an option!” In 2014 she pledged $12 million to restore the Venice Jewish Ghetto and turn it into a Jewish cultural center. Last of the group is #73; TORY BURCH, 50, married and mother of three sons and three stepdaughters, CEO of her own fashion design company Tory Burch LLC. She is Jewish on her mother’s side and says she embraces that heritage. Once she commented: “Clothes are not a religion. People don’t think Diane Von Furstenburg’s clothes are Jewish and my clothes aren’t waspy!” This lady looks like and is worth one billion dollars!

Considering that Jews make up about 2% of the world population ( figuratively Jewish women are approximately 1% of the world population), to hold 12% of the positions on the world’s most powerful women list, and 30% of the 10 top women on that list, is not shabby. It is a great beginning. As Bella Abzug, another powerhouse, once said: “Women belong in the house.... The House of Representatives!”

And to think that all but one of those women are wives and mothers, as well as chiefs. Undoubtedly, your mother was the most powerful woman you knew when you were a child, and your children thought the same about you. Your husband probably thinks you are the most powerful woman in his life, too! So to all the magnificent, multi-faceted mamas, doting aunts, loving sisters, and devoted daughters, HAPPY MOTHER’S DAY!

Charlotte Newman, May 2017

Ed. Note: If you are curious...The woman named the most powerful in the world is Angela Merkel, Chancellor of Germany.

Brotherhood

Held on the 5th day of the calendar month Iyar, which is the first of May, Yom Ha'atzmaut is a modern holiday celebrating Israel's independence, which occurred in 1948. Israeli Independence Day is always immediately preceded by Yom Hazikaron; Memorial Day for the fallen Israeli soldiers. This message of linking these two days is clear: Israeli owes their independence, the very existence of the State, to the soldiers who sacrificed their lives for it.

For American Jews, celebrating Yom Ha'atzmaut has been a way to express solidarity with the State of Israel and to strengthen their alliance with it. In many communities, it is one of the few occasions in which Jewish organizations and synagogues of different ideologies and denominations cooperate in forming a common celebration. In many North American congregations, the joint public celebration often is augmented by a religious service. In many occasions the singing of Hatikvah follows the service.

Brothers coming together for a common cause can accomplish what some may say is the impossible. But we all know that working together for a common cause, such as our Temple, proves that nothing is impossible.

Paul Elias
Brotherhood President

Israel Solidarity Committee

Comprehensive Briefing By Anti-Defamation League

Eric Ross, Associate Regional Director, Anti-Defamation League gave an informative speech about the focus and responsibilities of ADL. He emphasized that people need to contact ADL, if they experience anti-Semitism, bigotry or discrimination.

This message includes those who are non-Jewish also. ADL conducts their own investigations and has offices and training programs for police departments throughout the US and Israel.

The 150 in the audience enjoyed learning about ADL. This was the last speaker of the season for the Israel Solidarity Committee. We will continue our program again on November 1st at 7:00 p.m.

Tribute to the Jewish Mother

The one who taught us right from wrong, how to get along and how to have a song in our hearts,
How to keep friends, seek joy that never ends, and make a sweet mixture of the blends that life has to offer.

With love, she fed us, read to us, and led us to life's wonders.

Would take delight and defend us when we were right.

Yet no matter how old, would need to scold us when we were wrong.

Who taught us to talk, held our tiny hands as we walked, and encouraged us to climb mountains.

Took us to dancing school, piano school, Hebrew school, public school.

Showed us the golden rule, and how to be a "mensch."

Who would smile and kvell, and make the house smell so good with chicken soup, challah and kugel.

Who could fix it all; A scrape from a fall, a telephone call, a wounded ego.

Through the year, she hugged away our tears, allayed our fears and made us feel special.

Who could make us laugh, make us cry, make us try, even when we thought it was impossible.

Who told us we were the best, and all the rest seems so clear to us now.

Her love was unconditional, traditional and spiritual.

We felt safe and sound when she was around, so much of her is in us.

A best friend, a guide, a sage on the side, with

Loving pride - A JEWISH MOTHER

Happy Mother's Day to all who have been lucky enough to have a Jewish mother, are a Jewish mother, are thinking about becoming a Jewish mother or sharing life with one.

~Poem Submitted by Susan Clark

What's New in Israel?

The following news briefs were taken from The Chronicle, the community newspaper of the Jewish Council of North Central Florida, March 2017:

NEW GREAT POWER: “American Interest Magazine,” which each year lists “The Eight Great Powers in the World,” this year selected Israel as #8. It replaced Saudi Arabia on the list, because “Overall, the Jewish state continues to develop diplomatic, economic, and military power and to insert itself in the heart of regional politics.” Other factors mentioned were its offshore discoveries of natural gas and oil, good schools and talented thinkers and entrepreneurs, and the change in the balance of power in the Middle East.

AFGHANISTAN: One Jew Left: Though there were over 5,000 Jews in Afghanistan a hundred years ago, there is only one Jew left, Zebulon Simentov, who lives alone in Kabul. Simentov sells kosher meat and kebabs to the non-Jewish residents of Kabul. His wife and two children dwell in Israel.

ISRAELI BREATHALYZER: Israeli scientists have developed a breathalyzer technology for identifying 17 different diseases, including cancer and multiple sclerosis. The team claims an 86% success rate.

SOLAR EXPERIMENTS: Israel, already a leader in solar power, now is experimenting with the world’s tallest solar towers (820 ft. high). When completed in the Negev within two years three towers will provide all the electricity needs for four or five cities the size of Gainesville, FL.

Sisterhood trip to Holocaust & Dali Museums

Nearly 50 women and some men journeyed to St. Petersburg April 19 on a bus trip to the Florida Holocaust Museum and the Salvatore Dali Museum. They had a wonderful Greek lunch at the Acropolis restaurant.

Thanks to Sandy Solomon, who organized it very well.

Your Help is Needed

Three times a year the Sisterhood hosts Mah Jong tournaments. The events raise over $12,000.00 a year for our Temple and involves 25 women that volunteer to work in many different areas.

We are in need of items that can be used to create beautiful baskets. Additionally, door prizes are needed for each event. The majority of the prizes are DONATED items from our members.

The donated items need to be NEW, REGIFTED or things that you no longer need. Items of any price range are appreciated.

Please consider donating items to our future tournaments.

Rita Montroy can pick up your donations at the Temple or call her at 352 751-2582 or 352 460-2396 to arrange a meeting place. Additionally, you can email her at r2montroy@comcast.net.

Thanks in advance for your generosity in helping Sisterhood support our Temple, Hospice and the Shriner's Hospital for Children.
